INTRODUCTION

Context

Functions of the Court and Scope

The Magistrates' Court of Victoria is the first level of the Victorian Court system. Sitting in 51 locations (as at 2021) it hears most matters that reach court. There is no jury and each matter is determined by a judicial officer (magistrates and judicial registrars).

The Magistrates' Court of Victoria (MCV) was established by the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 as successor to the former Magistrates Courts, which were previously Courts of Petty Sessions, Police Magistrate, Court of Mines and Licensing Courts. This RDA applies to the MCV and its predecessors.

The criminal jurisdiction of the Court hears and determines all summary offences - less serious offences such as traffic offences, minor assault, property damage and offensive behaviour; some indictable offences - burglary and theft; and conducts committal hearings where a Magistrate determines whether there is sufficient evidence to convict the defendant in a higher court. For the purposes of this RDA it covers criminal proceedings of the Koorie Court, Drug Court, Criminal Diversion program, and matters heard by the (former) Courts of Petty Sessions.

The civil jurisdiction can hear civil disputes up to $100,000 arising from debts, claims for damages, other monetary disputes or equitable relief. For this RDA it includes WorkCover and Industrial Division matters.

The Municipal Election tribunal hears disputes arising from local government elections.

This RDA also covers the Court (and its predecessor Courts) jurisdiction to hear and determine matters in the Family Law division under a range of Acts including matters of maintenance, custody, guardianship and access, marriage of underage persons, change of name, property interests of de facto partners.

It covers records of the Court's jurisdiction to hear and determine matters pursuant to family violence, personal safety legislation, plus programs and services to reduce re-offending and improve safety.

See section 9.0 for "legacy records", i.e. records that are no longer created by the Magistrates' Court and its predecessors including the Courts of Petty Sessions, Police Magistrate, Court of Mines and Licensing Courts. It includes records in obsolete formats and/or matters which are no longer fall within the Court's jurisdiction. Legacy records are described by commonly known title to aid implementation.

Retention and Disposal Authority for Records of the Magistrates' Court of Victoria

Authority number: PROS 21/01 VAR 1

Introduction

Purpose of this Authority

The purpose of this Authority is to provide a mechanism for the disposal of public records in accordance with the Public Records Act 1973.

The Authority:

- identifies records which are worth preserving permanently as part of Victoria's archival heritage
- prevents the premature destruction of records which need to be retained for a specified period to satisfy legal, financial and other requirements of public administration, and
- authorises the destruction of those records not required permanently.

Context of this Authority

Public Record Office Victoria Standards

This Authority should be used in conjunction with the Standards issued by the Keeper of Public Records under Section 12 of the Public Records Act 1973. Copies of all relevant PROV standards, specifications and regulatory advice can be downloaded from www.prov.vic.gov.au. These documents set out the procedures that must be followed by Victorian public offices.

Disposal of records identified in the Authority

Disposal of public records identified in this Authority must be undertaken in accordance with the requirements of Public Record Office Standard PROS 10/13 Disposal.

It is a criminal offence to unlawfully destroy a public record under s 19(1) of the Public Records Act 1973.

The destruction of a public record is not unlawful if done in accordance with a Standard established under s 12 of the Public Records Act 1973.

This Standard (also known as an Authority) authorises the disposal of public records as described within its provisions. However, disposal is not authorised under this Standard if it is reasonably likely that the public record will be required in evidence in a current or future legal proceeding.

Retention and Disposal Authority for Records of the Magistrates' Court of Victoria

Authority number: PROS 21/01 VAR 1

For the purposes of this Retention and Disposal Authority, a 'legal proceeding' has the same meaning as the Evidence (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1958, and includes any civil, criminal or mixed proceeding and any inquiry in which evidence is or may be given before any court or person acting judicially, including a Royal Commission or Board of Inquiry under the Inquiries Act 2014.

If the public office identifies that public records must be retained under other applicable legislation for a period that exceeds the retention period specified under the Standards, then the longer retention period must apply.

Normal Administrative Practice

The destruction of some public records is permitted without final authorisation under normal administrative practice (NAP). NAP covers the destruction of ephemeral material of a facilitative nature created, acquired or collected by public officers during the course of their duties.

The following material may be destroyed under NAP:

- working papers consisting of rough notes and calculations used solely to assist in the preparation of other records such as correspondence, reports and statistical tabulations
- drafts not intended for retention as part of the office's records, the content of which has been reproduced and incorporated in the public office's record keeping system
- extra copies of documents and published material preserved solely for reference.

Transfer of records to Public Record Office Victoria

Contact Public Record Office Victoria for further information on procedures for transferring permanent records to archival custody.

Use of Other Authorities

In applying the disposal sentences set out in this Authority, reference should be made to other current Authorities where applicable. Where there is a conflict between two Authorities (for instance this Authority and the General Retention and Disposal Authority for Records of Common Administrative Functions), consult the Public Record Office Victoria for advice.
